

Memo

by Will Hansen

Here lies a poem
To show that I care
I've written you some
But one more will I share

I'm hoping you'll see this
Printed in ink
There'll be no way to amiss
No other way you can think

So here is my memo
To the one most sublime
To that girl that I know
I want to give you my time

And here is my time
Even though you weren't here
I wrote you a rhyme
Since it's you I hold dear

Though it wasn't spent together
To show it's you I favor
This might be better
Immortalized on paper
