

Life

Sunrise, sunset
The days are going by
So fast it feels like
We're running out of time
When my time is up
What will I have to show
What will I have gained
What difference will I have made
How will I have impacted
Somebody else' life?
How will I have made the world better and turned the dark to light?
How will I have made the hungry, full And made the sad, glad
Made the sick, healthy
Made the hopeless, hopeful?
I want my life to mean something
To even a small few
What will I do
To make this a reality?
